

Produce/Product

Briefly describe what you wish to sell. Please include or email any product brochures and/or photos, and evidence of requisite licenses.

Stall Space: 3 m x 3 m

Initially all new stallholders are classified as Casual.

Casual Stall fee is $95 Hot Food Stall $150

Minimum initial booking for consideration as a vendor is 3 consecutive markets. Stall fees must be prepaid for the next two markets upon acceptance of your application.

Electricity (where available) + $20

Application processing fee $25

Note: To be classified as a permanent stallholder, and to retain that classification, you must attend at least 4 consecutive markets and 12 markets each calendar year. Permanent stallholder's fees are $85; $105 with electricity if available.

A $20 late fee will be added to invoices not paid in a timely manner.

Stall fees are non refundable.

Certification where applicable

NSW Food Authority

Food Safety Supervisor Number: _____

Copy of the certificate to be attached. This certificate is not required by all food handlers, refer to: <http://www.foodauthority.nsw.gov.au/industry/fss-food-safetysupervisors/> for further information.

Insurance

Stallholders are obliged to have public liability insurance. On approval, the stallholder must provide BPSM with copies of Certificates of Currency for Australia Wide public liability in the sum of $20 million. It is also recommended that you have insurance for your product. If you currently do not have public liability insurance and are approved to trade at the Market, you may elect to be covered by the BPSM public liability insurance at a cost of $25 per market.